About us

The intersection of arts, culture, literature and wine

A Concrete Rose merges a bookstore, micro-winery and live entertainment venue under one roof; a book bar but so much more! The bookstore will feature books and art created by authors and artists of the African diaspora providing the community with the opportunity to learn about different cultures through the immersion of literature and art. We aim to provide the community with a place to freely express themselves and showcase their work on a regular basis.

Co-Owners Evita Colon and Solise White possess a proven track record in transforming dreams into reality. With Evita hailing from Lancaster and Solise from the Bronx, their combined efforts have led to the creation of an inclusive and inviting environment for all.

Qualities we are seeking in potential hires:

- Passion
